

Medu acquires Medical Scandinavia A/S – Strengthening Its Nordic distribution platform

Medu has acquired the Danish distribution company Medical Scandinavia A/S – its twelfth acquisition and a further step in the Group's Nordic expansion.

Medical Scandinavia brings nearly 20 years of experience supplying, installing, and servicing medical equipment for hospitals and specialist clinics across Denmark, and holds a strong position in the Danish market.

The acquisition will strengthen Medu's presence in Denmark and add valuable expertise, customer relationships, and service capabilities to its Nordic platform.

"Medical Scandinavia is a highly respected company with strong industry knowledge, experienced people, and a solid position in the Danish market," said Trond Dahl Hansen, CEO of Medu Group. "The company fits well with our strategy of partnering with strong, specialized businesses and supporting their continued development. We are pleased to welcome Medical Scandinavia to the Medu Group."

"Reaching our twelfth acquisition is an important milestone for Medu," said Anders Kjøde, CFO of Medu Group. "Medical Scandinavia adds a strong combination of market expertise, technical capability, and service operations, further strengthening the foundation for profitable growth across the Nordic medtech market."

Medical Scandinavia will be integrated into the Medu platform during the year, ensuring a smooth transition for customers, employees, suppliers, and partners.

"We are excited to become part of Medu," said Kenneth Amstrup Willer, CEO at Medical Scandinavia. "Medu shares our focus on quality, competence, and long-term development, and we see strong opportunities to further strengthen Medical Scandinavia while continuing to deliver the service and expertise our customers expect."

We look forward to welcoming the Medical Scandinavia team and to developing the business together in the years ahead.

Medu AS opkøber Medical Scandinavia A/S – Styrker sin nordiske distributionsplatform

Medu AS har opkøbt det danske distributionsselskab Medical Scandinavia A/S – deres tolvte opkøb og et yderligere skridt i koncernens nordiske ekspansion.

Medical Scandinavia bidrager med næsten 20 års erfaring indenfor levering, installation og service af medicinsk udstyr til hospitaler og specialklinikker i hele Danmark og har en stærk position på det danske marked.

Opkøbet vil styrke Medus tilstedeværelse i Danmark og tilføje værdifuld ekspertise, kunderelationer og servicekapaciteter til deres nordiske platform.

"Medical Scandinavia er en højt respekteret virksomhed med stærk branchekendskab, erfarne medarbejdere og en solid position på det danske marked," udtaler Trond Dahl Hansen, administrerende direktør for Medu Group. "Virksomheden passer godt ind i vores strategi om at samarbejde med stærke, specialiserede virksomheder og støtte deres fortsatte udvikling. Vi er glade for at byde Medical Scandinavia velkommen til Medu Group."

"At nå vores tolvte opkøb er en vigtig milepæl for Medu," udtaler Anders Kjøde, CFO for Medu Group. "Medical Scandinavia tilføjer en stærk kombination af markedsekspertise, teknisk kapacitet og serviceaktiviteter, hvilket yderligere styrker fundamentet for profitabel vækst på tværs af det nordiske medtech-marked."

Medical Scandinavia vil blive integreret i Medu-plattformen i løbet af året, hvilket sikrer en problemfri overgang for kunder, medarbejdere, leverandører og partnere.

"Vi er begejstrede for at blive en del af Medu," udtaler Kenneth Amstrup Willer, administrerende direktør hos Medical Scandinavia. "Medu deler vores fokus på kvalitet, kompetence og langsigtet udvikling, og vi ser stærke muligheder for yderligere at styrke Medical Scandinavia, samtidig med at vi fortsætter med at levere den service og ekspertise, vores kunder forventer."

Vi ser frem til at byde Medical Scandinavia-teamet velkommen og til at udvikle forretningen sammen i de kommende år.
